THE DISTRIBUTION YESTERDAY .- The distribution of medals and premiums to the pupils of the schools of the second district yesterday afternoon at the Smithsonian was largely attended by the parents and friends of the pupils. The schools marched to the Smithsonian about four o'clock, when after an interesting address had been delivered by Dr. Gillette, the pre-miums were distributed by Mayor Wallach. During the exercises the pupils sang several appropriate pieces in fine style, and the band performed appropriate music.

In addition to the list published yesterday we add the following list of Secondary No. 6, which was received too late for insertion yesterday: Exemplary Conduct and Punctuality-Millard Free, George Caton, H Smith, Ed. Hoover, Howard Wright, Joseph Free. Attention to Study and Improvement - John Lowe, Wm. Davis, Millard Weaver. Penmanship-Frank Ourand. Neatness-Frank Crompton. Music-H. Kallusowski.

TILL TAPPERS AND DOOR THIEVES .- Sunday night Detectives McDevitt and Clarvoe arrested Thomas Monear, Michael McCarty, John Woods, George Clark, John Swift, Albert Shelly and Geo. Revear, all boys of the bootblack and newsboy stamp, as till tappers and door thieves. Yesterday morning they were committed to jail to await an opportunity to send them from the city. Passing through the jail grounds the little scamps broke and run, scattering in every direction. Shelly being notorious, Clarvoe determined to have him at any risk, and chased him near half a mile through Swampoodle. Shelly jumped a fence and Clarvoe followed him and caught him in the act of lifting the lid of a privy box in order to hide. The two detectives secured all the fugitives except Monear, who will be taken if he does not leave the city.

CAUGHT NAPPING .- Last night, a big burly fellow was picked up by policeman Grown, of the Fourth Ward, for being drunk and disor-derly in Swampoodle. The officer roused him up, and he proved an ugly customer He gave his name as John Willard, of the 1st Va. cavalry. (rebel). Upon searching him at the station-house a discharge given by Col. H. M. Lazelle, 16th N Y. cavalry, at Anandale, Va., July 9th, 1864, a new silver watch, a new pair of boots, new grey pants, and $11 in greenbacks were found on him.

If the charge is sustained, the corporation is the gainer of a fine. If he tells the truth he is a good prize for the military authorities to pass judgment on. If he gets rid of the corporation fine and the military rule, be is still under suspicion because of the papers.

Too Many in One House.—Yesterday, Susan Gaines was arrested by officer Howard, for assault and battery with intent to kill A. D. Moore. Both parties, with their families, live in one house, and a quarrel broke out among them which resulted in the defendant taking an ax and striking Moore, inflicting a severe but not dangerous wound on his arm. The defendant was held to bail for hearing by Jus-

Prisoners.—Last night, a hundred and twenty prisoners were forwarded from the "front," above Tenallytown, by Col. Lema. roux, to the Provost Marshal. They were principally from Virginia regiments, though there were a few from North Carolina and Georgia. Amongst them was a wounded captain of the 6th Maryland.

REAPPOINTED .- B. S. Kinsey, Esq., one of the justices of the peace whose commissions had expired, has been reappointed, and entered upon the discharge of his duties yester-day. Justice Kinsey is an old resident of the city, and a much esteemed citizen.

TELEGRAPHIC COMMUNICATION with the North has been reopened to a moderate extent, and by to-morrow the wires will be fully re-

TAKING THE OATH UNDILUTED .- Yesterday, Col. C. E. Livingston, Assistant Provost Marshal, arrested George M. Sonthron, George B. Barnard. John Brooks, and E. C. Fearson, citizens of Georgetown, on charge of disloyalty. The prisoners were sent to this city, to the office of Military Governor, where they posi-tively refused to take the oath, but upon being placed in a back to be conveyed to the Old Capitol Prison, they changed their minds, and consented to subscribe to it. The oath was read to them by sentences, and they were required to repeat it, in order that they could not say that they did not consider it binding, as it was "only read to them," as some others have done. After repeating the oath, they were requested to sign their names to it, which they

THE RAILROAD COMMUNICATION has now been re-opened between here and Baltimore, a train having arrived here at 10:30 this forenoon. Nor INJURED .- Painful rumors to the effect that Jos. H. Bradley, jr., who was at his farm hear Tennallytown during the late invasion, had been killed or captured by the rebels, have been in circulation here for some days. Mr. B.'s farm was within the rebel lines. But upon inquiry among his friends in this city, we learn that Mr. B. was safe at his farm yes-

THE MAILS .- New York mails of the 12th and 13th have been received to-day. Some mails were received to-day also. Four wagon loads of mail matter came in to-day. The western and northern mail will go from here at 6 o'clock to-night.

THE CONTRACT for supplying the Navy Department and all its bureaus with stationery for the current fiscal year has been awarded to Messrs. Blanchard & Mohun, of this city.

STATE OF THE THERMOMETER .- At Franklin & Co.'s, opticians, No. 244 Pennsylvania avenue, the thermometer stood to-day at 1 O'clock, 120 in the shade; in the sun 85.

HEADQUARTERS MILITIA D. C., WASHINGTON July 14, 1861. S

General Orders No. 2.—By direction of the President, so much of General Orders No. 1 of July 11th from these headquarters as called for the immediate services and muster of the militia and volunteers of this District is rescinded, and all troops which have been mus, tered into the service under said order will be immediately mustered out. The Major General commanding takes this occasion to return his special thanks to Brigadier General Bacon, and to Colonel Baldwin, Adjutant General of this District, for the very efficient services they have rendered him in calling out the troops At the same time, he thanks the volunteer organizations, and particularly the National Rifles, Captain Wm. G. Moore, for the promptness and alacrity with which they responded to the call of the President.

GEO. C. THOMAS, Major General Commanding.
